step by step or at a click. Nylander, Phaneuf, Gagnani (Poss -11) Nylander, Phaneuf, Gagnani (Poss -11) We get all the players on the ice with the Carolina Hurricanes, who are clearly being prepped for a huge sell-off at some point in the near future. This will be a great chance for the Canucks to acquire Jake Virtanen, who has been the Swedish Elite League's leading scorer since he debuted in 2016-17. Virtanen, 23, has played in 57 career games in the SHL, registering four goals and nine assists while averaging 2.23 points per game. He was selected 45th overall by the Flames in the 2016 NHL Entry Draft and is ranked second among prospects in the Flames system. Vancouver would be getting an intriguing young forward who can play all three forward positions.

On the Blue Line: Gagnani, an undrafted free agent out of the University of Denver, won the ECHL's Most Improved Player award in 2014-15. Gagnani has recorded nine goals and 17 assists in 56 career games for the Cleveland Monsters in the AHL. Barbs, 24, has played in 11 career NHL games with the San Jose Sharks. Nylander, 27, has played in 34 NHL games with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Colorado Avalanche. Nylander is expected to compete for a roster spot on the new-look Toronto Marlies of the AHL.

On the Goalie Rotation: MacKinnon, 24, has played in 41 games with the Avalanche this season, compiling a 13-16-4 record with a 3.05 goals-against average and a .900 save percentage. Monahan, 26, has recorded 13 goals and 27 points in 43 games for the Calgary Flames. Vancouver had a lot of forward depth at the time of this trade, so if the Canucks can swing this deal, they would immediately put the pressure on the Buffalo Sabres to make a move or risk having Vancouver grab the No. 1 pick in the 2019 NHL Entry Draft. This seems like a fait accompli and the Canucks will be looking for that second-line center who will put the puck in the net. Players to Consider:

1. Jake Virtanen, C, Calgary Flames
2. Filip Chytil, C/L
