1701-1702The grey-white skeleton of a beautiful girl makes a lonely widow cry. The image of a skeleton in black, standing atop a white grave is really a story of loss and despair. The photo was taken in a cemetery in Rockville, Maryland, a suburb of Washington D.C. The story behind the image is just as heartbreaking. On September 10, 2015, a man named Timothy Jaeger was carrying his bag into the cemetery to pay his respects to a special friend of his. In the cemetery he noticed a gravestone with a skeleton on top of it. He was immediately struck by the sadness of the image, and decided to share the photo to express his feeling. The family of the girl on the gravestone was not pleased with his recent act, when they saw Jaeger had shared the photo on social media. They immediately got in contact with him. He told them he did not intend to hurt their feelings, and instead, just wanted to share the image, and let people know there is hope after death.

Unfortunately, the family believed otherwise and deemed Jaeger's act "creepy" and asked
