allegations are copyright infringement and trademark infringement under the Lanham Act. Alan Robert filed the suit today in King County Superior Court in Seattle against Netmarble and Netmarble America. The suit is the first in a series of lawsuits that intend to bring the truth to light and protect the intellectual property rights of game developers. In the game "Deception: Dark Parables", the lead protagonist is a thief who steals the locations of large and wealthy houses in order to sell their valuable treasures. Using the locations obtained, the protagonist repeatedly breaks into the houses and steals the treasures from the owners. In other words, the protagonist is a pickpocket with a twist.

The game is close to the same as "Dishonored 2" and "Splinter Cell," but the protagonist must obtain locations with the help of a third person. - The intended audience of "Deception: Dark Parables" is younger-aged people. According to
