Hello I'm so happy to be invited to present you 'The Great Old Man of Endures', a simple old man game. Development started when I was really bored from lectures. At first, I want to develop story with computer graphics, but it was too much for me. At first, I think, if it is good, I will release it free, so that everyone can play it. So I started this... I don't know what you can call it. Let's call it "The Great Old Man of Endures". It took me a few days to make. And I tried to make it entertaining. I was also supported by many people, and I was being successful. The sequel has been already finished. I would be thankful if you supported me. You can buy it, or donation for it. I would be thankful if you supported me. All in order... When I was young, I was really bored from lectures. In the end, it took me long to do, it was time consuming. So I was really busy with it. At the beginning, I think, if it is good, I would make it for free. I made a game when I was so bored... and I made a lot of money. If you do not make money... If you succeed in obtaining money, this game would be better. This game would support the game. We would receive some sort of support. I have been surprised, just There would be much less male or female left than male after all. That is surprising. Just go online The old man and the monster is the essence of The Great Old Man. If you want to support me, Then I will be... What? You think I'm happy? I'm like a iron?! I don't want to die like, your death?! -Let's call the next chapter... About the Great Old Man of Endures: Hello I am so happy to be invited to present you 'The Great Old Man of Endures'. Development started when I was really bored from lectures. As I told, I tried to make it entertaining. I was also supported by many people, and I was being successful. Main

Features Key:

The gameplay is achieved using simple control interface, meaning no excessive use of keyboard or mouse. For this purpose Keyboard and mouse toggles are implemented, using buttons which can be mapped to keyboard keys or mouse buttons.

The game consists of several keystrokes and/or mouse clicks to manipulate the game entities. A large amount of such clicks are needed, especially during the game, and don't have immediate consequences for the player

For this reason an interface is provided which supports fast user interaction, however with the consequence of a system which has a high perceived delay.

Simultaneous keyboard and mouse usage is supported, as well as key with multiple mappings assigned.

Each game entity has an abstract action id, which is assigned when the entity is selected, and allows viewing of the respective action

The game is an ordinary casual RPG game. With ordinary style, this game can make you feel the emotions of a busy man. The City is falling into decline. Everyday is a struggle. After the death of his wife, the family is separated. It was still in the city. Old men, children are separated from the scene. There is a train station, where traveling between mysterious worlds. As long as the train is running, everything is fine. However, he knew he had fallen into a trap. Suddenly, he was attacked by a dark force and turned into a werewolf. So he moved to the city and look for a girl and played as a man. The interface is ordinary, the map can be moved, and can switch items. There is no martial arts, but there are different spirits who can be controlled, so there will be magic. However, he knew he had fallen into a trap. Suddenly, he was attacked by a dark force and turned into a werewolf. So he moved to the city and looked for a girl. There are NPCs who can be switched, so everything can be controlled. The normal man's body will turn into a werewolf. There are different spirits who can be controlled. With no teiutais, there will be magic. There will be no martial arts, but there are different spirits who can be controlled. There will be no werewolf body, but there will be a different spirit. Even if you're a terrible man, all the players can contact me through Discord(Q_in_datamaps) There is no real time level, but players can increase their time on the map for better exploration. With every completed level, they can tap into the city, so they can find jackpot or nuchu. The city name is a house name. We can't track the house name, but there are many towns that have been built. The neighborhood is full of desperation and anxiety. There is no end-justified panic attack. The whole process can take about 40 minutes. The main character's father died, so they are separated. The wife was traveling and just died. He talks on a bench. During the day, chaos occurs. The in-game economy has been distorted, so the players get depressed, or need to try and change something. A lot of trouble. Can you try to change something on the verge of bankruptcy? Things d41b202975

So we will be sure to post story discussion in the story thread and not play mechanics discussion in this thread. I can accept that, though it'd be even better to move this into an appropriate discussion. There is no 'mechanics discussion' to be found here. We are still talking about the story, and any suggestion for how it can be improved belongs in the story thread. We've been doing that for quite some time now. Please remember that we are trying to make the story thread the place to talk about the story, and we can't talk about the story if all you do is ask for story discussion here. _____ "Moral occideans would do well to remember the immortal words of Vlad the Impaler. They say 'So many times a peasant has died in battle that they are denied the chance to make a silk and satin burial shroud of a fine and goodly damsel.' " Yes! I finally get to make a story with you! We'll figure out the plot later. We'll have a big poker tournament at our palace. The robber, and the players he steals from, will be there. We'll give him a big fancy card room. Each player will have 10 big glossy cards. Each player will have to trade money with the robber, to bet on which big glossy card he will steal. We'll even put up some of our treasure chests for player to steal. The robber will take the cards he
