What's new in Spell Fighter VR:

“Excitement is a monster in your closet, and, one day, it will come out and bite you in the butt.” - Dorothy Parker

Quick Blaze Quick Blaze is a VR sports game. Players take the role of an athlete and perform competitive feats by flying a fighter jet around a playing field, dodging and attacking opponents in some instances. With the Quick Blaze VR game, you will find yourself in the cockpit of a jet fighter that is placed in a virtual reality setting in front of you. Quick Blaze challenges players to complete high paced missions and face off against your friends. As the game progresses players use their jet to perform actions as they quickly fly, jump, dodge, slice, and fight opponents in a tight arena. Using the standard controls in the game, players will need to steer, jet thrust to avoid crashing, and use your weapons to knock opponents out of the way. As you get better at the game, you will be armed with upgrades that will help you perform better in the heat of battle. One of the biggest features in the game is Player vs. Player battles, which lets you compete with other players from around the world. Choose your favorite fighter jet and join players from around the world in this fun multiplayer game. Developed in Australia by a Starfighter Games team of five, with 5 years experience designing exciting games, Laser Radial is a racing game. Amazingly, it takes four hours to learn and you can race quickly and easily out of the gate. It’s a game where you become hopelessly addicted, creating all-night sessions, first person VR racing from your living room sofa, as you race against your friends and enemies across the galaxy, under the sea, even on Saturn’s moon, Titan. The game is incredibly fast-paced, but not complicated. All you need to do is steer, brake, turn on power and enjoy the game. There’s the odd revolution or two, but it’s all very straightforward as you collect electronic pieces and fly on increasingly amazing and exotic vehicles. Gamers can jump in and out at any time with any racing game but the beautiful hard earned style, gorgeous visuals and superb sound are some of the best on the list. The PS VR version means you can race in your living room with your friends, as you stare into the cockpit of 10 of the best racing cars in the world right in front of you. For
